26th April 1966

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I just want to acknowledge your telegram which reached us yesterday, April 25th. I hope by now you will have received a copy, which we sent to you on the 20th April, of my letter of that date to Mr. Harbord.

In it, I explained that very regretfully we felt compelled to reject your manuscript, excellent as it is, in view of the imminemt publication in both hard and soft covers of a book on the same subject. Once again, I am very sorry about this, but from a publishing point of view we feel we can take no other course.

Yours sincerely,

Ann Hughes.
